Fryeburg Public Library is on TV!

Check Valley Vision's website for dates and times of Literally Speaking. You'll hear interviews with local artists and authors!

Improved library access

We will be updating our library system, so our patrons can browse our books and place holds on library materials from the internet. If you work in Fryeburg, or attend Molly Ockett School, you are eligible for a free library card! Students must have a parent's signature on the application.

PROGRAMS

Virtual Story Times

Check Fryeburg Public Library's Facebook page or website for new episodes.

Virtual Book Discussion

Wednesday, October 14th at 10:00am

Join us via Zoom to discuss After Kilimanjaro by Gayle Woodson Email librarian@fryeburgmaine.org for Zoom access.

Book Signing

Saturday, October 3rd at 10 am to 12 pm

Diane L. Jones, author of History and Memories of North Fryeburg, Maine and Fryeburg Harbor, will be outside FPL to discuss her new book.

Bicentennial Yearbook

We are commemorating Maine's bicentennial year by documenting what 2020 is like in Fryeburg. Send your stories and pictures to librarian@fryeburgmaine.org

The yearbook is funded in part by a grant from the Maine Bicentennial Commission.

Kids on computers: Parents, please sign a permission slip to allow your child to use our public access computers. The forms are on our website and in the library.

We will be closed October 12th in observance of Indigenous Peoples Day.

The building will be closed for renovations October 27th– October 29th to the public. Phone reference services and curbside pickup will still be available during our normal open hours.
